

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

In re : Chapter 13
TESSA N. NDILLE : CASE NO. 06-41921-JBR
DEBTOR :

ORDER ON MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND ORDER

This matter came before the Court for hearing on the Motion to Alter or Amend Order dated August 6, 2007 [docket #85] pursuant to which the Court ordered Attorney Julia Fullwood, among other things, the four specific paragraphs to which she seeks reconsideration. Specifically they are: (1) Paragraph F which required her to turn over her files in this case, in a sealed envelope to the Worcester Office of the United States Trustee for dissemination to successor counsel or the debtor, if requested, a process agreed to by Attorney Fullwood through her counsel at the July 31, 2007 hearing on the Order to Show Cause, (2) Paragraph D which required her to send the debtor a letter, in a form agreeable to the United States Trustee and approved by the Court, and a copy of the August 6, 2007 Order, providing the debtor with information about potential representation through the Worcester County Bar Association, again a communication agreed to by Attorney Fullwood through her counsel at the July 31, 2007 hearing, (3) Paragraph A which requires her to refrain from consulting with other attorneys with respect to those attorneys' clients who are parties before the Bankruptcy Court, and (4) Paragraph G which requires her to provide the United States Trustee with the names of all persons who paid her money for legal services from the period June 1, 2006 through July 23, 2007. Although Attorney Fullwood, through counsel had consented in substance to the August 6, 2007 Order, and indeed had the opportunity to review the proposed order submitted by the United States Trustee, many of the foregoing provisions to which she now objects have been satisfied and/or otherwise dealt with in the August 23, 2007 order of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court in In re Julia Ann Fullwood, BD-2007-069, a copy of which is attached hereto (the "SJC Order").

After reviewing the Motion to Alter or Amend, the opposition of the United States Trustee, and all relevant documents, including the SJC Order, it is hereby ORDERED that the August 6, 2007 Order [docket #79] is amended as follows:

1. Counsel for Attorney Fullwood represented that files have been made available through him or the Hampden County Bar Association. Moreover paragraph 2(e) of the SJC Order requires Attorney Fullwood to make her files available and therefore Paragraph F is stricken and is replaced with paragraph 2(e) of the SJC Order, incorporated herein by reference.

2. Counsel for Attorney Fullwood represented that letters, incorporating language and suggestions made by the United States Trustee have been sent to Attorney Fullwood's clients who have cases pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts. Moreover paragraph 2(c) of the SJC Order requires Attorney Fullwood to provide notice to her clients and therefore Paragraph D is stricken and is replaced by paragraph 2(c) of the SJC Order, incorporated herein by reference.

3. Because Attorney Fullwood has agreed to cease and refrain from representing clients before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts (and subsequently to the entry of the August 6, 2007 Order was placed on disability inactive status by the SJC Order and thus is ineligible to practice law) but has agreed to cooperate in the transition of her cases to successor counsel, Paragraph A of the August 6, 2007 order is clarified to mean that she is not prohibited from communicating with successor counsel for the purpose of transitioning her cases. The Court rejects her argument that only advising clients constitutes the practice of law and reiterates its previous order that she is not to advise or consult with other attorneys regarding the handling of legal matters.

4. With respect to paragraph G of the August 6, 2007 Order, Attorney Fullwood has been ordered by paragraph 2(f) of the SJC Order to “refund any part of any fees paid in advance that have not been earned....” Moreover, this Court has entered an order requiring Attorney Fullwood to file fee applications in all of the pending Chapter 13 cases in which she represented the debtor. Because of the concern that there may be individuals who are not debtors in cases before the Court but believe that Attorney Fullwood is their attorney, Attorney Fullwood is to compile a list of all persons who, whether or not they paid money to Attorney Fullwood, consulted with Attorney Fullwood with the expectation that Attorney Fullwood would represent them, including filing bankruptcy petitions on their behalf but on whose behalf no petition was ever filed. Upon compilation of the list, Attorney Fullwood’s counsel has agreed to send those individuals letters similar to the letters already sent to Attorney Fullwood’s known clients. Upon completion of the mailing of those letters, counsel for Attorney Fullwood shall file an affidavit attesting to the mailing of the letters to any such identified individuals.

5. The August 6, 2007 Order remains unchanged in all other respects.
